

Ya Nangoloh must be taken to order, says who?

Contributed by Nicky Nalisa Muyahi
Thursday, 26 November 2009

Dear Editor, May you let me update Mr Nakale E. N who wrote a letter stating that Ya Nangoloh (Phil) must be called to order.

Let me correct him on that, Ya Nangoloh is a man of truth. The case that this man says was lodged against Nujoma (Dr Sam) the founder of OPO (Ovamboland Peoples Organisation), who later joined forces with CANU (Caprivi African National Union) to form Swapo, might be true.

Since the man didn't name the case it's a shame. About the graves, Ya Nangoloh is a big man, he knows what he is talking about.

Graves were found and they are graves of yesterday. Ya Nangoloh is a man of his word. The hidden agendas that some people think he has do not exist.

How can Ya Nangoloh be part of (Angola's) UNITA? He is a true Namibian with the spirit of equal rights. Let Ya Nangoloh do the job that he does best.

There are only a few people like him who can stand up tall against Sam Nujoma. I'm one of them.

SWAPO has done nothing. The truth will soon be out. We will be a free nation and not one where high ranking Government officials get scholarships for their kids. This is not an independent nation.

Nicky Nalisa Muyahi
B-Tech Economics

Polytechnic of Namibia